Prior Knowledge

- I know what human and physical features are and that the seaside has human and physical features. I can identify these. (Y2 Summer Term)
- I know that seasides are areas located at some points where the land meets the sea. (Y2 Summer Term)
- I know that the seaside is a popular place to visit and this is due to the human and physical features of the area. (Y2 Summer Term)

Key Knowledge

- Know what a coast is and can talk about some different types of coasts and how they are formed.
- Know how the Giant's Causeway was formed and that it is an natural coastline located in Northern Ireland.
- Know that Blackpool has developed over time due to human influence and is our nearest coastline.
- Know that people visit the coasts for different reasons and understand the impact that both humans and nature have on the coastline and the consequences of this.

| | Key | Vocabu | lary |
|--|-----|--------|------|
|--|-----|--------|------|

| Coast | The part of the land adjoining or near the sea. | |
|-----------|---|--|
| Sea Level | The point at which the sea's surface is. | |
| Areal Map | A photographic view of a place taken from above. | |
| Mantel | The largest layer of the earth located underneath the earth's crust. | |
| Magma | Hot molten rock found in the earth's mantel. | |
| Erosion | The process by which rock is slowly worn away. | |
| Tourism | The travel of people to different places for pleasure or business activities. | |

